Storybook Readings	A Couple of Cool Ideas
Dialogic Reading Questions to Ask	Your Choice
Guided Play
Center for Activity	Dramatic Play: Discussion of seasons and proper clothing
Materials	Pictures of trees during different seasons of the year (Found in appendix on page 103). Sorting game for winter and summer clothing (Found in appendix on pages 104-105).
Introduce the Materials and Link Them to the Books	"Let's talk about the seasons of the year. Do you see the pictures of these trees? How are they the same? How are they different? Can you name the seasons of the year? After talking about the seasons, provide the students with items that can used/worn during the summer and winter to sort." "In A Couple of Cool Ideas, Benjamin, Lucy, and Bear are eating a favorite summer treat...ice cream! They had many kinds of ice cream, but a few topping choices. A Different Winter Den happens in the coldest part of the year."
Examples of Guiding Questions	Allow children to direct play after you introduce the materials and briefly review the story with the materials. Actively engage with children during play with materials by following their lead and asking guiding questions using math language terms (i.e., many and few). Both close- and open-ended questions should be used. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Close-ended questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ "What season(s) will have many warm days?" ○ "What season(s) will have few or no warm days?" ▪ Open-ended questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ "How is having a few things different from having many things in your backpack?" ○ "What are many things you would take to go winter camping?"
